

March 2019

Dear Friends of Trinity,

Lent is a penitential season. Actually... every season is a penitential season. It's just that it gets greater emphasis during Lent. Martin Luther once wrote, "When our Lord said, 'Repent!', he meant that all of a Christian's life should be one of repentance." To repent means to change your mind and reverse direction. You were heading one way, but then you change course.

Lent is also a good time to examine the course on which we are all traveling in our life's journey. With that in mind, our Lenten Services on Wednesday evenings will focus on Biblical Themes as presented by the folks at The Bible Project. These short instructional videos will spark conversation and deepen understanding of the Biblical narrative. We watched a few of these last year, and we will do the same this year.

On the Sundays during Lent, we will examine tough questions that we sometimes ask. See the Explore God page in this newsletter for these. My sermons will address these questions each week, not so much to seek easy answers, but to put these issues in Christian perspective. This will be a great opportunity to bring family members and friends who struggle with these issues. Invite folks to come to church with you! During the Sunday School hour, I will facilitate a discussion group on each of these questions. Please contact me if you would like to participate or sign up for it on the sign-up sheet on the table next to the gym.

My prayer for us all is a Blessed Lenten season. God's blessings to you all in Christ!

In Christ,
Pastor Hoag

COMING ON THE SUNDAYS DURING LENT!

Beginning March 9 and 10 at each service, and for the following 7 weeks, Pastor Hoag will be presenting this sermon series that grapples with the big questions of the Christian faith. We all struggle with these questions. But by asking them we'll gain a more clarity on what the Bible teaches us. Bring family and friends, especially those who you know are struggling with these issues.

DISCUSSION GROUP

Beginning March 10 during Adult Bible class at 9:15am, Pastor Hoag will facilitate a discussion group that will wrestle with these important questions. You are invited! There is no cost to attend. Sign up on the sheet that can be found on the sign-up table next to the gym, or let Pastor know that you will be attending. This will be a great opportunity to bring friends and family who really struggle with these issues to discuss them in a safe and welcoming environment. Contact Pastor Hoag if you have any questions about this series.

MIDWEEK LENTEN SERIES 2019

With the upcoming Lenten season, we will once again be having Midweek Lenten Services on Wednesdays at 7:30pm. Beginning on March 13, a video series from The Bible Project will be presented as food for discussion. These very entertaining videos will be sure to pique our curiosity and bring clarity to themes that weave their way through the Bible. Themes that we will be exploring are: The Image of God, Exile, The Way of Exile, The Son of Man, and Sacrifice and Atonement. Bring family and friends to this insightful and meaningful series!

Soup and sandwich suppers are held at 6:30 p.m., just prior to each Lenten service.

Below is a schedule of the organizations who will be preparing the meals and the dates of the meals. Our youth will be serving at all the Lenten Suppers and the free will offering will go help with the National Youth Gathering trip in July.

UPDATE FROM OUR COUNCIL PRESIDENT, JEFF McDonald There is not a lot to report this month, but I will add a few highlights from the February council meeting. We made the second payment to Suevel Studios for their stained glass work and we are waiting for one or two minor repairs yet from them to complete their work. If you see tape on the stained glass window nearest the altar, this is the reason for that. We should have this work done in March and then we should be in a great spot for the next 15-20 years before a more major repair/maintenance job is needed on our stained glass.

Moving on to the kitchen, which we hope to be our next major project, we have draft plans drawn up for the kitchen that we intend to use for our permit application as well as for any contractors that we may hire to do parts of this job for us. We are planning to host one further meeting on Sunday, March 3rd, in the kitchen downstairs after the second service where we will review those plans to make sure there is consensus on the plans. If you'd like to see those plans, please plan to stop by around 11:30 on the 3rd of March. We plan to apply for the permit in March and we are hopeful that we won't be required to add any unforeseen steps to what we would like to do in this space.

We will plan to have another landscape clean-up day before Easter Sunday (hopefully when the weather is a bit warmer!), so please be on the lookout for that. It will be a Saturday morning and the more people we get, the faster it will go. Things are generally looking great around Trinity, and this is an opportunity to help make the outside of our church look as good as the inside.

Fannie May Candy Bar Sale! Rita Larson is continuing to sell candy bars for $1.00 each. They are available after church services, or in the church office. Please deposit your money in the envelope inside the candy bar box. This is for the benefit of the Chancel Guild. The proceeds from the February sales will be given to the Chancel Guild. These are great for Easter baskets!
