

November 2012

Dear Friends of Trinity,

I'm writing this as the dreaded Frankenstorm is battering the East Coast. A storm that floods lower Manhattan, NYC is cause to take notice. This is one powerful storm that I imagine will make the history books. We're supposed to feel its effects later on.

Natural disasters have always given me the impression that our planet is trying to kill us all! I know that that isn't true, but it's just something that lingers in the back of my mind. If Earth really wanted all of us dead we would be gone by now, I would think. But we go on. Babies are still being born.

I've been struck recently by the realization of the fragility of life. It's not something I think about often. Unfortunately, things have to happen before I'm startled back to reality. The recent loss of the 9-year-old daughter of a friend really reminded me of how brief and fleeting this life of ours really is.

We have a God who gave up His only Son, Jesus, and suffered loss as His beloved was nailed to a cross and buried in a cave. For three days Jesus' body was left there in the tomb. Three days of grief. But that sad time was temporary. God raised Jesus to life and gave hope to the world!

We really have much to be thankful for. It might not seem like it many times as we go through periods of feeling the weight of tremendous grief and loss. But even in those times there are hidden blessings to be found. In fact, blessings are all around us if we open our eyes to them. And the greatest blessing during dark times is that there's always hope. Let's be thankful for hope!

I wish all of you a very Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

In Christ,

Pastor Hoag

NOVEMBER 2012

There were so many activities going on in October, we decided to “hold the presses” so we could bring the updates on those events in this newsletter, rather than in December’s. So, reporting chronologically:

The Salad Luncheon: Chancel wants to thank Women’s League for providing those lovely desserts. They made for a well-balanced meal. ☺ It was, as usual, wildly successful.

The Hayride: Social Ministry yell “THANKS” for all the participation and food donations. In spite of the mud, rain, and horrific winds, 29 persons enjoyed the attractions and hot dog lunch.

Concert for India/ Ice Cream Social: The concert saw 60 concert-goers and 45 stayed on for ice cream and donated “goodies” and drinks.

Mission India itself netted over $4,000 for this worthwhile cause.

The Craft/Vendor Fair on 10/27: Thank you to everyone who attended and volunteered at the Craft and Vendor Fair. We had another successful year and raised a good portion of the cost for our youth to attend the National Youth Gathering next year in San Antonio. Congratulations to all who won raffle prizes!

Following Women’s League meeting on 10/30, guess what appears? Yep, the cookie walk trays!

More information on some of these items will appear in each group’s area of the newsletter, but for those of you in a hurry, there are your “sound bytes.”

We will not be meeting in December.

Financial Secretary's and Treasurer's 3rd Quarter Report:

The congregation adopted a 2012 General Fund Budget of $193,269 at its Annual Meeting on January 29. The Budget is 2.2% higher than contributions made to the General Fund in 2011. The Council deemed the increase warranted to cover expected higher operating costs. A modest salary increase of 2% was granted to Pastor, the Secretary, Organist and Choir Director. Primary support of the General Fund by the congregation is very important to meeting Trinity's ongoing needs.

During the quarter, all due bills were paid. Operating expenses for utilities were considerably lower than budgeted. General Fund receipts were about 3% above those received during the same period last year. A $5,000 contribution was received from Preschool to be applied toward ongoing church maintenance and operating expenses. The church is up to date on its pledges for LCMS Missions and LCCF. The condensing unit in one air conditioner was replaced in July, creating an unexpected expense. The balance on the original $100,000 mortgage, used to finance the new restrooms, was $23,934.33 at September 30. We want to thank everyone for their support of Trinity Lutheran Church and its missions. If you have any questions, please contact Jan Prospero, Financial Secretary, or Bruce Hasch, Treasurer.

ENVELOPES:

Members who have not received offering envelopes in the past and would like to request them for the year 2013, please, fill out a request with your name, address, and telephone number and give it to Kim, Church Secretary, or place in Janice Prospero's church mailbox. Request sheets will be on the table in the hallway soon. You may also contact Janice at 815 485-3558.

FREE TO BE FAITHFUL FAQs FROM SYNOD:

Q: What is religious liberty?

A: Religious liberty is the right to live, practice and worship according to one's religious beliefs. It is a liberty guaranteed by the First Amendment of the US Constitution.

Q: Is our religious freedom really being threatened?

A: Nearly two centuries ago, the founders of the Missouri Synod came to the US seeking religious freedom. Like immigrants from many nations and many faiths, they found that freedom under the First Amendment of our US Constitution. Today, however, that precious freedom is being eroded, and we must speak out now to preserve the right to live- not just worship – according to the teachings of our faith.

Religious Liberty: Free to be Faithful was created as a response by LCMS leaders to increasing intrusions by government into the realm of the church. Recent examples of such intrusion include requirements that social service agencies with governmental contracts consider same-sex couples as potential foster care and adoptive parents, even if such practices violate church teachings under which the agencies operate.

The tipping point was the inclusion of a provision in the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA), also known as the health-care reform act, requiring the health plans of many religious employers to cover birth control drugs and procedures, including those that can cause the death of an unborn child. This provision is causing a conflict of conscience for many religious employers and individuals.

It is important to note that the LCMS takes no position on the PPACA as a whole, for that is a matter for the government, not churches, to decide. Our concern as Lutheran Christians and citizens of the US, is to distinguish carefully between responsibilities God entrusts to the church (e.g., Romans 13:1-6; 1 Peter 2:13-14). As a Christian church, our concern at this time is to retain the freedom to put our faith into action, backing up our verbal witness to the Gospel with deeds of love and compassion that are obedient to God's Word. At the same time, as Christian citizens, we accept our responsibility to support with prayer, respect and taxes the work that government seeks to accomplish.

Q: What can I do?

A: Because we are on the cusp of national, state, and local elections, the LCMS encourages all members to follow their consciences and sound reason in supporting candidates, legislation, and social and political efforts they believe would improve society and safeguard our precious religious liberty.

Here are some things you can do:

Pray for our country, for our president and other officials, for those who serve in the armed forces, and for all those who work to preserve freedom, peace and justice in this and every place. (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Educate yourself about the many issues that our country is facing and the positions of parties and candidates.

As you gain further knowledge on the issues, participate fully in the political process, and let your representatives know that these issues are important to you.

Engage in informed, respectful discussions with friends and family, always being prepared to give an account for the sure and certain hope of eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus – a hope that no earthly event or power can undermine. (1 Peter 3:15)

Be sure to exercise your right to vote!

Q: Is this something the church should be speaking about? What about the doctrine of the two kingdoms?

A: Lutherans affirm Scripture's teaching that God rules and works in two different ways in different "realms" or "kingdoms." God rules and works in His church through His Word and Sacraments, through which He creates and strengthens faith in Jesus Christ and love for one's neighbor. God rules and works in the world He created and in secular human societies through earthly authorities and laws. Human laws benefit society when they reflect both the law that He inscribed onto the human heart and His gift of human reason.

As Christian citizens, we are called to fulfill the duties of citizenship. It is our responsibility as individual Christians to participate as fully as possible in the political system according to consciences formed by God's Holy Spirit. While the church is not called by God to exercise political authority, it is incumbent for the church to proclaim and bear witness to the whole counsel of God" (Acts 20:27b ESV) The "whole counsel" includes God's will in such areas as care for the poor, marriage and family, sexuality and the preservation of human life at all stages of development. The discussion of such issues in the public realm offers Christians a unique opportunity for careful reflection on God's will and design as they seek also to be responsible Christian citizens.

Q: I would like to learn more about this. Where can I find more information?

A: Visit www.lcms.org/freetobefaitful to get more information.
