

November 2018

Dear Friends of Trinity,

The Person of the Trinity we don't talk about very much is the Holy Spirit. That is probably because we don't want to sound charismatic in our theology. But we ignore the Holy Spirit at our peril because He is responsible for our holiness. He gives to us the merits of Christ Jesus through Word and Sacrament and assures us of eternal life.

The Holy Spirit does other things as well. He "enlightens us with His gifts", as we say in the Explanation of the Third Article of the Apostles' Creed. Yes, there are "gifts" of the Spirit, and these are listed in 1 Corinthians 12—the utterance of wisdom, the utterance of knowledge, faith, healing, working of miracles, prophecy, the ability to distinguish between spirits, speaking in tongues, and the interpretation of tongues. These gifts are for the common good of the church and for the building up of its members so that the church operates as a body.

There are also what are called "fruit of the Spirit", and these are listed in Galatians 5—love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Who wouldn't want these? Who among us would like a little more peace and joy in their lives? Ask the Holy Spirit to give you this fruit and perhaps one or more of the gifts. Keep praying that the Holy Spirit will grant you these things. The Lord loves you and wants to give you all that he has for your life.

It is my prayer that the Holy Spirit continually point us to our salvation in Christ Jesus and grant to us His presence and gifts in great abundance!

In Christ,
Pastor Hoag

Update from our Church Council President, Jeff McDonald

As you may have seen in the bulletins, we are taking another step toward our kitchen remodeling project. We have a number of things we need to accomplish before we can begin on this project, so we are currently targeting the start of the project to follow Easter next year. While that seems a long way off, we weren't sure we could finish between Christmas and Lent so we felt it better to wait until after Easter to start the project. There are still a number of unknowns involved in this project, including some plumbing issues we'll need to sort out, and we didn't want to have to rush the project.

Our own Courtney Schrank has agreed to chair a Kitchen Design Committee and any interested members should plan to attend a meeting at noon on Sunday, November 11th in the downstairs kitchen. Courtney is an interior designer and agreed to give back to Trinity by helping us with the design of the new kitchen. If you would like to be involved in the layout and design of this space, please come to this meeting and participate in the process with Courtney and others. You can reach Courtney by e-mail at csdesigns22@gmail.com or just plan to come to this meeting on the 11th after the second service.

You may have also noticed that our window restoration project is underway. Suevel Studios is putting in two days each week (Tuesdays and Fridays) on this project and they are slowly but surely getting our stained glass windows at Trinity back in pristine condition. If you see any masking tape on the windows, please know that is placed there with purpose and know that we are on our way to having those windows back in top condition before much longer.

Finally, I wanted to make sure every had the Annual Cookie Walk on your calendars for Saturday, December 1st. While our Women's League is no longer an active group at Trinity, their members remain committed to a number of causes, not the least of which is the annual cookie walk. This occurs this year on the first Saturday of December, so I wanted to make specific mention of it in the November newsletter. Please make a point of either contributing your homemade cookies or just coming up to Trinity that morning and buying some of the amazing cookies made by the talented bakers in our congregation (or do both!). Our thanks to Donna Cuthbert and Social Ministry for helping to make sure this rich tradition continues at Trinity.
